> (From the Galveston News.) Texas Summer Song.

Did you ever hear of a drought A regular Texas stew? No! then I'll invoke my panting muse

And issue a verse or two. Thermometer ninety at nine, One hundred degrees at four, And ninety again at nine P. M.,

For a full month or more. So hot that you fall asleep Over the news by mail-That a cow can't low or a chicken crow

Or a watchdog wag his tail. So hot that men don't speak "In a healthy, natural tone,

But greet as they meet in the dusty street With a searcely audible group. A staggering rocater reels After a manetruck fly,

And a hog just winks at an ear of corn Which chances to lie near by. Not a drop of dew by night, Not a drop of rain by day ; The wells and cisterns going dry And the creeks have ran away.

VARIETY.

It was a self-made doctor in Michigan who wrote to John Bright and asked him how his disease got along, and he is justly indignant that his letter was never answered .- Detroit Free

" Are these pure canaries?" asked a gentleman of a bird-dealer, with whom he was negotiating for "a gift for his fair." "Yes, sir," said the bird-dealer, confidently; "I raised them 'ere birds from the very best canary seed.'

Nine tenths of the quarrels of this life would be averted if we would never take the doubt against charity. Never expect an insult. Men who go about looking for men to kick them are seldom disappointed. Men who accept only the best interpretation of every act are sure to have always the best acts to interpret.

One of the saddest and most vexatious trials that come to a girl when she marries is that she has to discharge her mother and depend upon a hired girl .- Troy Times. Dry Goods, Clothing, Hata surnishing Goods, Ladies' and Gents' Boots and Shors Yankee Notions, &c., &c. But the saddest time for the new-made husband wife doesn't discharge her mother, but takes her home with her. "You are nothing but a demagogue," said a tipey fellow to Tom Marshall, who promptly paid him back: "Put a wisp of straw around you, and you will be nothing but a demijohn." The following testimonial of a certain patent medicine speaks for itself: "Dear Sir: Two months ago my wife could scarcely speak. Soe has taken two bottles of your ' Life Renewer,' and now she can't speak at all. Please send me two more bottles, I wouldn't be without it." The exasperated New Haven Register says: "An odorous perfume walts across Connecticut every time there is a clam-bake in Rhode Island and an east wind blowing. If that little finger of a State can't keep its savory smells at home, a delegation will be sent down to roof it in, or else eat up the clams." They say that profanity was not known in the world until one day, somewhere about 5000 years before the Christian era, when Aristides, chasing from his office in desperate baste to catch the last street car, was stopped by Themistocles, who wanted to tell him how the rheumatism had been troubling him nearly all winter, and how many things be had tried for it. Advertisement in an exchange-" If the young man who went to call on a girl an Fourth street, last Sunday night, but who suddenly left the front door and shot out of the yard, with a dog attached to the dome of his trousers, will return the dog, a reward of five dollars will be paid by the girl's father, and no questions asked."

An Irish self-taught poet, being asked to say grace over a small piece of beef and a few pota-toes rather of the dwarfed size, pronounced it thus extempore :-

> O Thou that blest the loaves and fishes, Look down upon these two poor dishes; And though the 'tatoes are but small, Oh, make them large enough for all ; For if they do our belifes fill Twill be a kind of miracle.

EDITORIAL HAPPINESS .- If, as it is said, happiness consists in occupation of the mind, the average editor should be moderately content. With two men sitting on his table, reading exchanges, a book agent whispering in his ear that he'll never get such a chance again because there wasn't but one made, a boy or two hanging round the quarkirts with a base ball item concealed about their persons, a compositor fainting away for a translation of some of his peculiar awful chirography, a couple of patrons pressing him for a seven-dollar puff for a dollar and a quarter advertisement, and a ferocious-looking individual sitting just outside the door with a heavy weight cane, and a crumpled copy of the paper in his hand, waiting for " a chance to see him alone," the newspaper man may be said to be just in the suburbs of occupation, and threatening to be quite busy in time.

A NEVADA JUDGE .- " It is a surprise to see a young man like you here," said Judge Bowker, at Reno, Nev., the other day, to a fellow who had been whooping it over night. "You filled yourself up with an enemy to deprive you of your brains," proceeded the court, re-arranging its spectacles and glaring at the culprit. " Now, here you are, a young man of intelligence and good clothes on, and doubtless you have a mother and sisters you think a great deal more of than I do. You have been sent to senoul, and taught how to carn a good living. In return for this you go screaming around the streets at midnight, tearing down signs and making a wild beast of yourself. Is that like the conduct of a reasonable creature? No, of course it isn't. Now, I am going to teach you a lesson, young man. You needn't turn pale, for it won't help you any. Have you got any chewing tobacco about you? Thankee. Chew more and drink less, like I do. You're discharged. Next time you're tempted to take a drink, think of my kindness and weep, and refrain from the debasing habit. Eh? Well, I don't care if I do. Avery, come out and join me with this young gentleman."-Exchange.

A statement has been issued by the War Department of the United States giving the namber of men furnished for the Union Army by each State and Territory and the District of Columbia from April 15th, 1861, to the close of the War of the Rebellion. It shows that the total number of volunteers was 2,678,967, distributed as follows; Maine, 72.114; New Hampshire, 36,629; Vermont, 35,262; Massachusetts, 152, 048; Rhode Island, 23,699; Connecticut, 57, 379; New York, 467.074; New Jersey, 81.010; Pennsylvania, 366,107; Delaware, 13,670; Maryland, 50,316; West Virginia, 32,068; Distriet of Columbia, 16,872; Ohio, 319,659; Indiana, 197,147; Illinois, 259,147; Michigan, 89, 372; Wisconsin, 96,424; Minnesota, 25,052; Towa, 76.309; Missouri, 109,111; Kentucky, 79,025; Kansas, 20,151; Tennessee, 31,092; Arkansas, 8,289; North Carolina, 3,156; California, 15,725; Nevada, 1,080; Oregon, 1,810; Washington Territory, 964; Nebraska Territory. 3,157; Colorado Territory, 4,903; Dakota Territory, 256; New Mexico Territory, 6,561; Alabama, 2,576; Florida, 2.190; Louisiana, 8,224; Mississippi, 545; Texas, 1,965; and the Indian mation, 3,503. The troops furnished by the Southern States were, with the exception of those of Louisiana, nearly all white. Florida furnished two regiments of cavalry, Alabama one white regiment and Mississippi one battalion.

M. J. ROSE, SHOP ON KING ST., HONOLULU,

no newspaper man or reporter having said one word in rega-to it, I shall, therefore, blow my own horn. It is only recent that Carriages has become so common that almost every house holder has got one. holder has got one.

IN THE SCRIPTURES, Carriages or Charlots are frequently alluded to. Upon the flight of the Israelites from Egypt, King Pharaoh pursued them with Six Hundred Charlots, all of which were swallowed up by the waters of the Red Sea. And when Israel made up his mind to pay his and Joseph a visit, Joseph telegraphed the old gentleman to confe down to Goshen and he would meet him there and drive him down to Payor in a Jagon (wagon.) INSURANCE COMPANY! Goshen and he would meet him there and drive him down to Egypt in a Jaggon, (wagon.)
Chariots and Carriages were mostly used by Kings and Grandees on state occasions.

The Greeks and Romans had Charlots; but strange to say, it was as late as the sixteenth century, in 1550, that Carriages were introduced into France, and at that date only three were known in Paris, then quite a large city.

M. J. ROSE is now prepared to furnish almost any kind of vehicle that may be ordered of him; has got some of the Best Skilled Mechanica that can be had in any country.

Also has received a large invoice of ALL KINDS OF STOCK, such as Hubs, Spokes, Felloes, Shafts, and one thousand other things, too numerous too mention. But to convince yourself, ust call and C.
